My name is Keiko. My family has four members: father, mother, younger sister, and me. I love my family, but now I have a problem.

Both of my parents have jobs and they have to work every day. They leave home early in the morning and come back home at night. When I was five years old, they decided to make time for us on Sundays. Since then, we have always gone out together on Sundays. We have been to many places like zoos, gone to see movies, and sometimes gone cycling. We have had a good time.

Now I'm a junior high school student and a member of the tennis club. The club members are very friendly and we're going to meet on weekends. We practice tennis from Mondays to Saturdays, so we only have free time on Sundays. I want to go out with my friends on Sundays. But I don't think I can do that. I have to go out with my family on Sundays. It is difficult to tell my parents that I will not go out with my family because that will make them sad. I know that time with my family is important. What should I do?

繰り返します。
